Ricardo scoops innovation award

The Performance Products division of Ricardo was named winner in the Innovation category of the JP South Business Awards, hosted on Friday evening at the Grand Hotel, Brighton

The JP South Business Awards celebrate business excellence within the UK's South Coast region, with winners selected by a judging panel formed of a group of independent businesses people from across the area. Ricardo's Performance products division was named winner of the Innovation category in recognition of its excellence in delivering high performance engines, transmissions systems and components for some of the world's most advanced vehicles.

"This is a great result for the Ricardo Performance Products team," commented Ricardo Performance Products managing director Mark Barge. "Already in 2017 we have introduced multiple new engine variants into production at our manufacturing facility at the Ricardo Shoreham Technical Centre, and we are also actively pursuing the application of high performance battery systems and electrified transmissions for both motorsport and road-going applications. This award is a recognition of the hard work achieved by the team in successfully bringing the latest technologies and innovations to market."
